Preventive legal care can avert discipline and civil liability issues before they become problems; thus every organization needs a periodic liability checkup. Attorney instructors who understand police operations will discuss risk and loss management, higher yield initiatives, personnel and employment practices, and pro-actively managing specific officer involved incidents.

Upon completing this program, police chiefs, commanders, mid-managers, first line supervisors, personnel administrators, risk managers and training managers will have explored:

- avoiding "vicarious" liability
- screening and selection for liability avoidance
- discrimination, reverse discrimination and affirmative action
- administrative investigations, remediation and discharge
- high-risk communications
- non-routine vehicle operation, pursuit and response driving
- keys to making policy work
- tips for policy manual review and revision efforts.
